

Welcome to New York City

Welcome

While you're here, take the time to explore the City and discover all the reasons why NYC's five boroughs drew a record 46 million visitors last year. Experience the magic of a Broadway show and the breathtaking views of the skyline from the Staten Island ferry, visit the museums and galleries, and enjoy the countless fantastic restaurants. Whatever your taste, New York City truly offers something for everyone.

Dining

The flavors of the five boroughs take form in ways that are alternately traditional and modern, innovative and unexpected. After all, New York City's dining scene is constantly pushing the boundaries of the culinary world. Celebrity chefs showcase innovative new restaurants, while the city's ethnic eateries dish out tastes for any palate. Whether you are in the mood for pizza or pancakes, New York City has it all.

Check out NYC & Company's dining page for more information about where to eat.

Sightseeing

While you are in town you'll certainly want to visit the City's most famous landmarks but don't forget to check out the historic neighborhoods and outer boroughs, too. With endless options of places to visit, you'll have no problem filling all your free time with things to do. Make sure to bring your spouse and children and take advantage of all the family friendly sights and activities.

Shopping

NYC is the ultimate shopping destination. Discover one-of-a-kind handcrafted wares on the streets of Greenwich Village and Soho savor delicious imported Italian delicacies on Arthur Avenue in the Bronx or explore Queens and Brooklyn boutiques. Head to a museum gift shop and bring home a signature piece of NYC culture. The City is the perfect place to shop 'til you drop – without dropping all of your hard-earned cash. Click here for more details.

Check in regularly for up-to-the-minute discounts & offers and free in NYC events on nycgo.com.